Levin & Perconti Hires New Associate

CHICAGO, January 23, 2009 – The Chicago-based personal injury law firm of Levin & Perconti recently hired Lindsay Mack as litigation associate. Lindsay will work on personal injury cases including nursing home litigation, medical malpractice cases and car accident cases.

Lindsay joined Levin & Perconti as a law clerk after taking the Illinois Bar Examination in August 2008. She passed the Bar and was admitted to the Illinois State Bar Association at a swearing-in ceremony on November 6, 2008. She is also a member of the American Bar Association, Chicago Bar Association and the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association.

Lindsay received her law degree in May 2008 from the Chicago-Kent College of Law. During law school, Lindsay participated in the Charles Evan Hughes Moot Court Competition, ranking in the top ten percent of participants. She was also selected as a “Top 5 Advocate” in her Intensive Trial Advocacy Course and was a member of the Phi Alpha Delta International Legal Fraternity.

Lindsay graduated from the University of Texas in 2005 with highest university honors. At Texas, she majored in Government with a minor in business and was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society. Lindsay grew up in Deerfield, IL and graduated as salutatorian from Deerfield High School. She now lives in Chicago and enjoys traveling, yoga and running.

“We are happy to welcome Lindsay as an associate. During her clerkship, she displayed an outstanding knowledge of the law and a genuine concern in helping our clients to receive just compensation for the negligence of others,” said Steven Levin, founding partner of Levin & Perconti.

Levin & Perconti is a nationally renowned law firm concentrating in all types of personal injury, medical malpractice, and wrongful death litigation. The lawyers at Levin & Perconti are committed to protecting and vindicating the rights of people who are injured by the negligence of others.
