Jaime Koziol of Levin & Perconti Receives “40 Illinois Attorneys Under Forty” Honor

CHICAGO – November 2, 2016 – Jaime Koziol, an associate attorney at Levin & Perconti, has been named as one of the Law Bulletin Publishing Company’s “40 Illinois attorneys under 40 to watch.”

This award honors the top “40 Under Forty” Illinois attorneys under the age of 40, for their outstanding achievements on behalf of clients, their contributions to the legal profession, and their commitment to their community. Recipients are nominated by other lawyers, including judges and opposing counsel. The Law Bulletin receives over twelve hundred nominations each year. Jaime is the sixth attorney from Levin & Perconti to receive this recognition in the past seven years.

Jaime joined Levin & Perconti in 2012. As an associate, Jaime plays a key role in a number of complex medical malpractice, nursing home, wrongful death and personal injury matters. Jaime is involved in all steps of the litigation process, including case intake, drafting and filing complaints, and taking depositions. Some of the cases Jaime has worked on include a $9 million settlement in a birth injury case, a $1.17 million verdict in a medical malpractice case, and a $1 million nursing home negligence settlement case.

Jaime was also named an Illinois Super Lawyers: Rising Star in 2015, 2016 and 2017 an honor awarded to less than 2.5% of lawyers in Illinois.

Jaime attended Saint Viator High School in Arlington Heights. Jaime graduated from Miami University in 2008, where she received a bachelor’s degree in Speech Communication and Journalism. She graduated from DePaul University College of Law in Chicago in 2011, where she was a recipient of Law Merit Scholarship from 2008 to 2011. She currently lives in the Chicago West Loop neighborhood with her husband Tom and their Rottweiler Stella.
